1. About West State Super

At GESB, we have over 80 years’ experience managing the super savings of current and former WA public sector employees. With around 245,000 members and over $34 billion in funds under management (as at 31 August 2022), we’re the largest super fund in WA and one of the largest in Australia. To learn more about who we are, visit gesb.wa.gov.au/about.

West State Super is a market-linked, untaxed accumulation super scheme:

- Accumulation means your account balance builds up over time from your State Government employer contributions, your own personal contributions and any super that you roll in from other funds, as well as from any investment earnings (which may be positive or negative) on these contributions based on your chosen investment plan(s).

- The untaxed nature of the scheme means that, unlike most other Australian super funds, West State Super does not pay income tax on any contributions or investment earnings that your super account receives while it accumulates. Instead, tax is payable on your benefit when it is paid to you. It’s perhaps more helpful to call it a ‘deferred tax’ account, you can:

  - Ask your employer to deduct extra money from your pay before tax is taken out and to pay this into your West State Super account (called concessional or before-tax contributions, or salary sacrifice)
  - Ask your employer to deduct extra money from your pay after tax is taken out and to pay this into your West State Super account (called after-tax or non-concessional contributions)
  - Put any money you have saved, or lump-sum amounts like inheritance, lottery winnings or proceeds of an asset sale into your West State Super account (also called after-tax or non-concessional contributions)
  - Transfer super you have in other super funds into your West State Super account (called rolling over or consolidating your super)

There are limits to the amount of contributions you can make to your super. Employer and salary sacrifice (concessional) contributions to constitutionally-protected funds, like West State Super, count towards your concessional contributions cap. This annual cap does not limit the amount of concessional contributions that you can make to a constitutionally-protected fund. However, as these contributions count towards your annual cap, they do limit your ability to make further concessional contributions to other non-constitutionally protected super funds.

Non-concessional contributions made to your West State Super account count towards your non-concessional contributions cap. If you exceed your non-concessional contributions cap, you may have to pay more tax.

You should read the important information about contributions in our ‘Contributing to your super’ brochure available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures, before making a decision. The material relating to contributing to your super may change between the time you read this PIB and the day you acquire the product.

2. How super works

About super

Super is designed to help you save for your retirement. Different types of contributions can be paid into your super, for example: compulsory employer contributions (also known as Superannuation Guarantee or SG), other contributions your employer may make, contributions you choose to make and Commonwealth Government Super Co-contributions. These are all designed to increase your final benefit in retirement.

To encourage Australians to save for their retirement, the Commonwealth Government provides a range of tax concessions and other benefits for contributing to your super. Depending upon your personal circumstances, there can be significant tax advantages to using super to save for retirement. See section 7, ‘How super is taxed’, for more information.

Visit moneysmart.gov.au for more information on how super works.

Contributions

Generally, your employer needs to make compulsory SG contributions into a complying super fund on your behalf. Most people have the right to choose which fund their employer should direct their SG contributions into. Usually, unless you’ve asked your WA public sector employer to pay your SG contributions to another complying fund, these contributions will automatically be made to your West State Super account.

To make voluntary contributions to your West State Super account, you can:

- Ask your employer to deduct extra money from your pay before tax is taken out and to pay this into your West State Super account (called concessional or before-tax contributions, or salary sacrifice)
- Ask your employer to deduct extra money from your pay after tax is taken out and to pay this into your West State Super account (called after-tax or non-concessional contributions)
- Put any money you have saved, or lump-sum amounts like inheritance, lottery winnings or proceeds of an asset sale into your West State Super account (also called after-tax or non-concessional contributions)
- Transfer super you have in other super funds into your West State Super account (called rolling over or consolidating your super)

3. Benefits of investing with West State Super

Experience

We have over 80 years’ experience managing the super savings of current and former WA public sector employees. With around 245,000 members and over $34 billion in funds under management, we’re the largest super fund in WA and one of the largest in Australia.

Strong investment performance

We consistently deliver strong long-term investment returns that meet our objectives.

Well regarded

We’re well regarded by our members, employers and peers and are recognised as a ‘top value-for-money’ fund.
4. Risks of super

All investments have some level of risk. We invest in a range of asset classes, including Cash, Fixed Interest, Property and Shares, with each having different levels of risk. Different weightings of these asset classes make up the various investment plans available to members.

West State Super offers a choice of investment plans. The investment plan you choose will change in value over time and will perform differently at different times due to various factors. The likely range of investment returns, and the risk of negative investment returns, is different for each investment plan depending on the underlying mix of assets. When choosing an investment plan, you should consider that past investment returns are not a reliable indicator of future performance.

A number of risks are significant in terms of investing in West State Super, including market risk, inflation risk, currency risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, counterparty risk, sequencing risk, longevity risk, environmental, social and governance risk and operational risk.

Read more about the significant risks relevant to an investment in West State Super in our ‘Investment choice’ brochure available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures.

General risks of super

When considering your investment in super more generally, it’s important to understand that:

- The value of investment plans will go up and down
- Returns aren’t guaranteed and there is a risk you may lose some of your money, even in more conservative investment plans
- Those assets with the potential for achieving the highest return over the long term (such as Shares) may also have the highest risk of losing money in the short-to-medium term
- The level of returns will vary from year to year
- Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance
- The amount of your super savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide adequately for your retirement
- Super is a long-term investment and may only be accessed when you meet a condition of release
- Laws affecting super may change

The appropriate level of risk for you will depend on many factors, including: your age, investment timeframe, other assets outside super and how they are invested, and how comfortable you are with the possibility of losing some of your investment in some years. We recommend that you talk to a financial adviser before deciding which investment plan best suits you.

2 Based on the Standard Risk Measure.
3 Mix Your plan Fixed Interest invests in Investment Grade Bonds.
4 The investment return objective is the investment return this plan will seek to achieve after investment fees. The investment return objective is made with reference to an amount above the increase in the Consumer Price Index (CPI). The CPI is a measure of the rate of inflation. For example, if over the applicable time period the objective for an investment plan is CPI +3.0% p.a. and the CPI increase is 2.5% p.a. then the investment return objective would be 5.5% p.a.
5 Consumer Price Index.
6 Based on the Standard Risk Measure.
7 The Growth/Defensive split is the target allocation mix of Growth and Defensive assets. Some asset classes may be classified as part Growth and Defensive.
6. Fees and costs

Consumer Advisory Warning

Did you know?
Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask your fund or your financial adviser to refer to the schedule of fees and costs.

To find out more
If you would like to find out more or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) Moneysmart website, moneysmart.gov.au, has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

Depending on the fee or cost, it may be paid directly from your account or deducted from your investment return. The material relating to fees and costs may change between the time you read this PIB and the day you acquire the product.

7. How super is taxed

The ‘untaxed’ nature of the West State Super scheme means that, unlike most other Australian super funds, West State Super does not pay income tax on any contributions or on investment earnings that your super account receives while it accumulates. Instead, your super account is only taxed when you withdraw your benefit. The tax treatment will depend on whether you choose to receive a lump-sum payment or roll over your benefit to a complying taxed fund or income stream.

</tr>
</tbody>

Warning: exceeding the untaxed plan cap

You can withdraw up to a maximum of $1.65 million in concessional tax benefits from your West State Super account. If you exceed the cap, you will pay extra tax on the excess.

Division 293 tax for high income earners

The concessional tax treatment of certain super contributions is reduced for high income earners from the 2012/2013 and later income years. If your adjusted taxable income plus low tax contributions exceed the high income threshold of $250,000, an extra 15% tax is paid on taxable contributions (which will be the lesser of the low tax contributions, or the amount above the $250,000\(^{18}\) threshold). For the avoidance of doubt, you are liable for the tax. Division 293 tax does not apply to excess concessional contributions. There are special rules for defined benefit interests, constitutionally-protected State higher level office holders, certain Commonwealth justices and temporary residents who depart Australia. This is a complex area and if you think you might be affected by Division 293 tax, we recommend that you seek personal financial advice for your circumstances. For more information, read our ‘Tax and super’ brochure available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures, or visit the ATO website at ato.gov.au.

Here’s why we should have your tax file number

When you join West State Super, you should tell us your tax file number (TFN). If you’ve provided your TFN to your employer, your employer will pass this on to us when you join. While it’s not compulsory to provide your TFN, it allows us to use it for lawful purposes.

If we don’t receive your TFN:

- You may have to pay more tax on benefits paid to you
- We may not be able to accept your personal (after tax or non-concessional) contributions
- It may affect your eligibility for the Commonwealth Government Super Co-contribution payment or the low-income superannuation tax offset (LISTO) payment
- It will be more difficult to trace different super amounts in your name to make sure that you receive all your super benefits when you retire

You can lodge your TFN using Member Online at mol.gesb.wa.gov.au or by calling your Member Services Centre on 13 43 72. You can also obtain a form from gesb.wa.gov.au/forms.

8. Insurance in your super

Important information about automatic insurance cover

When you join West State Super and you are not a casual employee, or if you start as a Casual Employee and later become a Permanent Employee, Sessional Employee or Contractor you are likely to be automatically eligible for the following types of insurance:

- Death (including Terminal Illness) and Total & Permanent Disablement (TPD) insurance
- Salary Continuance Insurance (SCI) - also known as income protection

Generally, your insurance cover will begin when we receive your first SG contribution from your employer. To be eligible for automatic cover, your employer’s SG contributions must be paid to your West State Super account and you must be aged less than 65.

Our Board has also retained Partial and Permanent Disablement (PPD) cover for certain eligible West State Super members.

If you are eligible for insurance cover, you may be entitled to West State Super’s default level of cover, called basic cover. If you don’t want this cover, or want to cancel it at any time, you can opt out through Member Online at mol.gesb.wa.gov.au, over the phone by contacting your Member Services Centre on 13 43 72, or in writing by submitting an Insurance variation form.

From 12 September 2020, if you’re a member of West State Super, and don’t have insurance, we may automatically provide you with our basic level of insurance cover if you’re a Permanent Employee, Sessional Employee or Contractor and you meet the Special Conditions Cover eligibility criteria. For more information refer to our ‘Insurance and your super’ brochure, available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures.

It’s very important that you understand your insurance cover and costs:

You should read the important information in our ‘Insurance and your super’ brochure, available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures, before deciding whether the insurance is appropriate. This includes details about the level and range of our cover options, how to apply for cover, premiums, and how to make a claim.

Terms in this section which are in italics, are defined terms. For the meaning of defined terms, refer to the glossary in our ‘Insurance and your super’ brochure at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures.

You might also be able to apply for Voluntary Cover (in addition to basic cover). This requires underwriting and acceptance by the Insurer and allows you to increase your level of insurance cover to suit your own circumstances.

If you’re a WA Police Officer and you are medically discharged, you may be entitled to an alternative SCI benefit. For more information refer to our ‘Insurance and your super’ brochure, available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures.

\(^{17}\) For the 2022/23 financial year, indexed annually in line with Average Weekly Ordinary Time Earnings in increments of $5,000 rounded down.

\(^{18}\) The threshold at which division 293 tax applies was lowered to $250,000 (from $300,000) for 2017/18 and future financial years.
If you're employed on a casual basis, you are not eligible for automatic basic cover but may be eligible to opt in for basic cover. Casual Employees are generally defined as employees who are paid at an hourly rate and are not entitled to be paid annual leave or sick leave in their employment.

If you're not eligible for automatic cover, you can still apply for insurance cover. You can either:
- Apply through Member Online at mol.gesb.wa.gov.au
- Contact your Member Services Centre on 13 43 72 for a copy of our ‘Insurance application’ form

Insurance cover will be on terms offered by the Insurer.

There are some exclusions that may stop you or your dependants from making a claim against your Death, TPD and SCI cover such as where the death or disablement is caused by participation in war, active service in the armed forces, self-inflicted injury or suicide. These details are set out in our ‘Insurance and your super’ brochure, available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures.

If you received an increase in cover when you joined our Professional and Executive category or you are a casual worker who has opted into basic cover, you may be subject to Limited Cover. This is cover which applies only in respect of events or conditions which arise entirely after your insurance cover commencement date. If your first SG contribution from your employer is received more than 120 days after you commenced employment, your insurance cover is subject to Limited Cover. This applies to Death, TPD and SCI cover.

You must be At Work on the day that your cover commences to be covered for Death, TPD and SCI cover. If you were not At Work on the day that your basic cover commenced due to sickness or injury, you will be provided with New Events Cover from the commencement date of your cover.

If you receive Special Conditions Cover, different limitations apply. Please see our ‘Insurance in your super’ brochure at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures for more details.

Warning
You should read the important information in our ‘Insurance and your super’ brochure, available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures, before deciding whether the insurance cover offered through West State Super is appropriate.

The brochure includes information about eligibility for cover, conditions and exclusions, as well as how to change or cancel your cover. All of these factors may affect your entitlement to cover.

The material relating to insurance in your super may change between the time you read this PIB and the day you acquire the product.

9. How to open an account
If you started working within the WA public sector before 16 April 2007, you would have become a member of the West State Super scheme automatically, unless you already had a Gold State Super or WA Public Sector Pension Scheme. Nearly all WA public sector departments and agencies participate in the West State Super scheme, so in most cases your membership will continue if you transfer between departments and agencies.

The West State Super scheme is now closed to new members, but you may still be able to open a West State Super account if you meet either of these criteria:
- You are a Gold State Super member with pre-1 July 1983 service and you are currently a WA public sector employee
- You are the current or former spouse of a Gold State Super or West State Super member affected by a Family Law super split

Call your Member Services Centre on 13 43 72 to find out more.
