Did you know you can make most changes to your insurance cover in Member Online?

Simply log into Member Online at mol.gesb.wa.gov.au and go to the 'Insurance' tab. If you use Member Online, there's no need to complete this form.

- Decrease or opt-out of your existing insurance cover
- Change your occupation category or your date of birth

For all other changes, you will need to complete a full 'Insurance application' form which needs to be approved by our Insurer.

Consider your needs carefully before decreasing or opting-out of any insurance cover. By opting-out of your insurance cover, you or your estate will no longer be eligible for an insured benefit. You will then only be entitled to the benefit that has accumulated in your super account. You and your family should assess your ability to cope financially in the event of an unforeseen death or disablement.

If you wish to increase or reinstate your insurance at a later date, automatic acceptance will no longer apply. You will be subject to the satisfactory completion of a full insurance application. Acceptance may be subject to the medical terms and conditions as prescribed by the Insurer or your application may be declined.

Important note for West State Super members

By opting-out of your entitlement to any cover for Death and/or TPD, you also opt-out of any entitlements under Partial and Permanent Disablement cover specified in the State Superannuation Regulations 2001 (WA).

You may wish to seek financial advice before making any changes to your insurance cover.

Section 6 Increase SCI waiting period

Complete this section if you would like to increase your SCI waiting period. The default waiting period is 90 days.

If you want a shorter waiting period of 30 or 60 days you will need to complete an 'Insurance application'.

Important information

About this application

When you apply for life insurance, the Insurer conducts a process called underwriting. It's how the Insurer decides whether the Insurer can cover you, and if so, on what terms and at what cost.

The Insurer will ask questions they need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give us or the Insurer in response to their questions is vital to their decision.

The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance, there is a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the Insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty applies to a new contract of insurance and also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. There are different remedies that may be available to the Insurer. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put the Insurer in the position they have been in if the duty had been met.

Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be varied. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Before the Insurer exercise any of these remedies, the Insurer will explain their reasons and what you can do if you disagree.

Please note that there may be circumstances where the Insurer later investigate whether the information given to us or the Insurer was true. For example, the Insurer may do this when a claim is made.

Guidance for answering our questions

You are responsible for the information provided to us or the Insurer. When answering their questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us or the Insurer before you respond
- Answer every question
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it
- Review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, the Insurer may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer our questions differently.

As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us or the Insurer know about any changes when they happen.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions the Insurer ask. Ask us, the Insurer or a person you trust, such as your adviser for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of buying insurance or answering our questions.

If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, we're here to help. If you want, you can have a support person you trust with you.

Notifying the Insurer

If, after the cover starts, you think you may not have met your duty, please contact us or the Insurer immediately and we'll let you know whether it has any impact on the cover.

Your privacy

By completing this form you consent to any personal information, including information that may be of a sensitive nature, we or AIA Australia may collect about you in the normal course of our and AIA Australia's business, being used as outlined in our and AIA Australia's respective privacy policies. These policies are designed to protect your interests and are consistent with the requirements of the Privacy Act. A copy of AIA Australia's privacy policy can be obtained from www.aia.com.au.
