Important information

We are authorised to collect your TFN under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future.

We may disclose your TFN to other super funds, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request in writing that we don't.

It is not an offence for you not to provide us with your TFN. However giving your TFN to us will have the following advantages (which may not otherwise apply):

- We will be able to accept all types of contributions to your account(s)
- The tax on contributions to your superannuation account(s) will not increase
- Other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your superannuation benefits, and
- It will make it much easier to trace different superannuation accounts in your name so that you receive all your superannuation benefits when you retire

If you do not provide your TFN:

- You may pay more tax on your super benefits than you have to
- Super contributions made by your employer (including salary sacrifice contributions) may be taxed extra
- We may be unable to accept your personal, after-tax contributions which could affect your eligibility for the Commonwealth Government Super Co-contribution
- You may be unnecessarily liable for the Super Contributions Surcharge in relation to contributions pre-1 July 2005
- It may be more difficult to locate and amalgamate your super benefits in the future

The purpose for which your TFN can be used and the consequences of not quoting it may change in the future as a result of changes in the law.

For more information on providing your TFN to your super fund, visit ato.gov.au or call the ATO Superannuation Helpline on 13 10 20.

Note: we have a privacy statement that explains how we handle private information about individuals responsibly. Our privacy statement is available on our website at gesb.wa.gov.au/privacy or can be obtained by contacting your Member Services Centre on 13 43 72.
