

Additional spouse contributions

GESB Super and West State Super

To request this document in an alternative format such as Braille, call us on 13 43 72 or use our Live chat service at gesb.wa.gov.au.

Complete this form to make additional personal contributions on behalf of your spouse.

To be eligible to make a spouse contribution, the contributing spouse must be a current GESB member.

If you are making the contribution, you are the contributing spouse. If the contribution is made on your behalf, you are the receiving spouse.

We will send an acknowledgement letter to the receiving spouse once the contribution has been processed.

Section 3 Acknowledgement

Receiving spouse

To be able to receive contributions from your spouse, you must be under the age of 75¹.

In signing this form I acknowledge that:

- I understand that the contribution will be allocated to my eligible GESB account and invested in my nominated investment plan. If I have not nominated an investment plan, all monies will be invested in the My West State Super plan in West State Super or the My GESB Super plan in GESB Super (the default investment plans for these schemes)
- I have read the relevant Product Information Booklet and the 'Spouse contributions' brochure and understand that they contain general information only and do not take into account my investment objectives, financial situation or needs
- I understand that any benefits accruing on my behalf in my GESB account are subject to rules and conditions of release applicable to that scheme, including preservation standards (see the 'GESB Super Product Information Booklet' or the 'West State Super Product Information Booklet', both are available at gesb.wa.gov.au/brochures)

Both partners

In signing this form we confirm that, at the time of making this spouse contribution, we live permanently together on a bona fide domestic basis as a married couple or de facto partners (including same sex partners) and are Australian residents.
